

Friday, July 14, 2017

1:00 Cindy Oravec and Quilters Fancy

Taking a Creative Leap: Enhancing Quilts, Clothing & Embroidery with Embellishments

Hear and see what's new in attaching everything from trim to fiber to unusual objects to quilts, clothing, decorative accessories and embroidery. Embellishments can be very soft and hug the surface of the fabric as with various types of embroidery or they can be outlandish and wild. See what happens when you take a creative leap and embellish.

3:00 Linda Miller

Meet her Old Ladies -see what can be done with a $35 quilt top!

---

Saturday, July 15, 2017

11:00 Eva Birch, Nancy Gano and Jodi Robinson will share some of the award-winning quilts. They've also published a book, Applique for Modern Beginners and will have it available.

1:00 Dianna Hutts Aston

Once upon a time, Dianna was mired in a misery of wishes...until she met a stranger—a well known children's writer/illustrator—in New Orleans in '06, when An Egg is Quiet was published—who literally came through mist and lightning to show her how magical the world could be, if she would recognize the opportunities that presented themselves and trust her intuition.

By practicing courage, her fears evaporated and adventure rolled in. Since that moment in New Orleans, she's driven through Mexico, often alone, meeting only the kindest, most resourceful people—and she welcomes any occasion to dispel the myth of its danger. She's lived in rural Mexican villages, crewed hot air balloons, ridden motorcycles through two countries, lived on a sailboat, cuddled snakes, collected the dreams of people from many nations, and traversed her home country and the country that adopted her in a hand-painted car called The Maiden America II.

---

Sunday, July 16, 2017

1:00 to 5:00 Sandy Lord

The Gallery, Mercer, Pa.

Don't Be Afraid of Stripes!