Charity Quilts

Charity Quilts was able to donate TWELVE new quilts to SCH Oncology Department last week (thanks for delivering them, Sharon Walker!!). We had some enthusiastic help on 9/17 enabling us to have TWELVE new oncology quilts. We also have several VA quilts ready to deliver as well. I sincerely appreciate all the help that Nancy McKinley, Glenda Sharp, Kathy Brown, Linda Robb, Linda Henderson and Sharon Walker gave us!!! Also, as always, Robyn and Julie Winn dropped off quite a few quilts that they had assembled at home! We had a great time cutting, sewing and finishing these quilts as well as going to lunch at Ezio's!! All that sewing made us weak with hunger (HA!), so we had to make it to a local restaurant so we could keep our strength up!!! We'd LOVE to see you at our next meeting!!! If we accomplished all we did with nine people.....think what we could do with TWENTY people!!!! I am making a challenge to UQG: I'd LOVE to see at least 20 people at our next meeting!!! The quilt show is over; Marketplace has adjourned for a little while--let's try to rally with one of our greatest UQG causes-----CHARITY QUILTS!!!!!!!!!! As always, thanks for your encouragement and support!!! Sue Elze

United Quilt Guild Minutes – September 6, 2011 Submitted by Margie Hoffmaster

There was no meeting to speak of due to Martelli Innovations presenting their merchandise to the guild.

Rita Kilpatrick did make a suggestion for the teacher of our 2013 Spring Tea Workshop. Her name is Anna Faustina. After the members had an opportunity to look at photos of her work a vote was taken. Anna Faustina was approved to be our guest instructor. Details will follow.

The meeting was adjourned. SHOW AND TELL followed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Workshop Committee

The committee consists of six members, three of whom are appointed every other year. The three members staying are Pat Firestone, Rita Kilpatrick, and Mary Durkin. We need three members to volunteer to join this committee to help plan and organize workshops for the guild.

Challenge

Lynn Stiles and Colleen VanLeeuwen have agreed to co-chair the challenge again. Thank you Lynn and Colleen. The name of the challenge is “Three of a Kind”. Your quilt can be of any size, color, technique and pattern. The challenge is to incorporate at least one of your favorite blocks in 3 different sizes. Example: log cabin @ 4” – 6”- 8”.
