COMMITTEE REPORTS

Challenge

Our 2013 Guild Challenge will be called "Hidden in Plain Sight". The challenge will be displayed and voted on at the quilt show rather than the usual June meeting. We ask that your project tells a story using quilt blocks to symbolize key events. The story can be true or made up. Also, please write a narrative explaining your story and attach it to your entry. There are no restrictions for fabric, size or style. You may enter a quilt, wallhanging, purse, table runner, accessory or garment.

2013 Quilt Show Underground Railroad

Pat Williams presented the Salem Community Center's proposal (sent via email) for the 2013 UQG quilt show. Printed copies are available for those who do not have email. Lynn Stiles made a motion to accept the proposal and Rita Kilpatrick seconded the motion. The motion passed.

The theme for the 2013 quilt show is the Underground Railroad. There will be a theme category as in years past. The city of Salem will also have activities planned pertaining to the Underground Railroad.

Marketplace

GO TEAM GO!

We want to see your Marketplace ideas!

Please bring 1-3 yds of fabric (no older than 3 years, please) to a meeting. It can be novelty [ie: sports/National team, sewing room, kitchen] or other print – something that would fit into today's home decorating schemes. Have a pattern that you want to make for yourself? Well, let's get a couple of others to make it too. We only need about 10-12 items of a pattern of the smaller things, less of larger items.

October 2 and 16
November 3 and 6
10 a.m. – 4p. +/-
