NEW BUSINESS

Workshop Committee

Barb Unger, Sally Carrier, Marianne Less and Pat Patterson are the current committee members. Two more people are needed to complete the six member committee. Michele Mayton volunteered to join the committee. One more is needed. Rita Kilpatrick, Mary Durkin, and Pat Firestone are retiring. Much thanks to all new and old.

UQG Treasurer's Audit

The Assistant Treasurer/Secretary, Debbie Mangas, is responsible for choosing an audit committee and conducting the audit. The committee Winnie Alek, Lois Dunn, and Pat Patterson found the treasurer's records to be accurate and neat. A suggestion was made by the auditors for the charity group committee chairs to keep a written record of the number of quilts delivered, who delivered them and who accepted the quilts. Nannette Lunger made a motion for the Charity Quilt committee chairs to use a form to keep track of quilt donations. Michele Mayton seconded the motion. The motion passed.

A form will be created for the chair people to keep track of the donations.

Challenge

Our 2013 Guild Challenge will be called "Hidden in Plain Sight". The challenge will be displayed and voted on at the quilt show rather than the usual June meeting. We ask that your project tells a story using quilt blocks to symbolize key events. The story can be true or made up. Also, please write a narrative explaining your story and attach it to your entry. There are no restrictions for fabric, size or style. You may enter a quilt, wallhanging, purse, table runner, accessory or garment.

2013 Quilt Show Underground Railroad

The theme for the 2013 quilt show is the Underground Railroad. There will be a theme category as in years past. The city of Salem will also have activities planned pertaining to the Underground Railroad.

Quilt Show Meeting

The next two quilt show meetings will be at the Salem Senior Housing condo club house at 996 W. Perry St. The meetings will start at 6:30 PM on Monday, Sept 17 and Oct 15.

Raffle Quilt

Our raffle quilt was on display for all to see. Sandy Stitt did a great job quilting this beautiful quilt.

Little Quilt Auction (a.k.a. LQA)

Have you gotten your idea together for your little quilt? Finding the fabric? Hope you're getting started NOW for the LQA July 2013 at our show. Quilt should be no longer than 28 inches on one side, or any size smaller. Please put a hanging sleeve on the back [or a means to hang], and be sure to label it with your name, date and 'history' of your quilt.

GOAL: finish one LQA quilt before Christmas, then get started on a second one after New Years!

Proceeds from sales will help benefit our Charity Quilts program.

Marketplace

GO TEAM GO!

We had questions regarding the 1-3 yd fabric donations that we asked for. The pattern or print can be geared to a sewing room, holiday, sports, or any subject, or toward the kitchen. We will then use it to plan and make projects for those topics.

Thanks to those who have donated so far!

We had our first workshop day and it was very successful! Everyone had a good time working on their bags and are looking forward to the next installment. If you didn't get to come but are still interested you can still join, bring your fabric and Sally will help you get started. Hopefully each of you who participated will make a second bag to donate to Marketplace. Thanks, Sally Carrier for leading us forward!!Have any ideas for what you would like to 'buy' at Marketplace? Or something you 'need' but not sure how to make it? Let us know.

October we will start a wrist pincushion with Tina leading us!
