Pat Williams nominated Mary Durkin for treasurer. Mary accepted the nomination. We will vote at the May meeting. Thank you very much Kim for all of your time and effort.

2013 Spring Tea

Thank you to Marianne Less, Barb Unger and Rita Kilpatrick for all of their work in arranging the workshop and tea. Brian Haggard was the featured instructor and speaker. I have it on good authority that the workshop was wonderful, relaxed and fun. Brian's trunk show on Saturday was jaw dropping and very inspiring. A very pleasant afternoon.

Little Quilt Auction - How's it coming? Is everyone getting their donations for LQA ready?? Several people have taken some of the packets of fabric that Nanette packaged for us. Hopefully we will see more quilts in progress. Make about 28" on a side, labeled with the maker, date and place, reason for making and any other information you want to add. A couple of folks are making table runners, placemats and other such items. Can't wait to see them all! Please, Let's make this the BEST LQA yet!

Charity Quilts

Sue Elze thanked the guild for all of their contributions of time and materials. She also reported that 20 quilts have been delivered so far this year and 40 more are close to completion. She also mentioned that fleece is needed to back the quilts. 1 1/4 yards of browns, beige, green, red and blue would be appreciated. Nannette Lunger announced that 10 baby quilts have been finished and donated.
