Welcome to our new member Susan Pack and our guests Marcia Stoffer and Erin from Serendipity Quilts.

The treasurer's report from March was approved as read by Miriam Good and seconded by Mary Durkin. All were in favor, none opposed; the motion passed. The Spring Tea and Trunk Show was $1,840.66 less amount paid by members $1,030.00 equals total cost to the guild $820.66

Our program for the day/evening was the Sale of Robyn Winn's fabrics. A big Thank You to ALL who helped with the unloading, loading, display and pricing; including our Sales Ladies Jennifer Greenleaf, Debbie Mangas and Julie Winn.

Meeting was adjourned.

Show and tell.

OLD BUSINESS

The board met last month to discuss the Budget for 2015-2016. The Budget was revised and approved by the Board. See Judi Lemmon or Barb Fink for copies of the current budget.

NEW BUSINESS

Lynn Stiles passed around a sheet for the size of your challenge quilt to plan for displaying your completed quilts. Volunteers are needed for set up, hanging quilts, kitchen, food, raffle; and raffle donations also needed.

Discussion for another quilt show. A Show Coordinator is needed ... and do we want another show? If not, what do we do with the quilt racks in storage? Suggestions: (Lilian Morenz) Lisbon guild lost their racks in fire, might purchase or rent ours; (Rita Kilpatrick) Osnaburg guild has a building we could store racks for about $100.00 per year. Should we have smaller show? We have a lot to think about. Ideas, suggestions and volunteers are needed. Lois Dunn made a motion to table today's discussion until our May meeting, Geri Altomare seconded the motion. Debbie Mangas will do a list of pros and cons and list needed committees for our continued discussion at our May meeting.

Dee Hart would like to organize and teach a workshop of the Marti Mitchell or Jodi Barrows designs on a one day or monthly schedule.

Jennifer Greenleaf suggested that the guild purchase some of Robyn Winn's fabrics for our charity quilts. Kathy Strelko made a motion to accept and Winnie Alek seconded. Miriam Good suggested the amount of $125.00 and Lois Dunn made a motion to accept and Kathy Strelko seconded it.

Lois Dunn informed us that last year on the day after Thanksgiving, here at the Presbyterian Church several church members brought their nativity sets in for display and they are asking if anyone from our guild would like to participate this year. You would be responsible for setting up and taking down your own display for this event.
