United Quilt Guild Minutes October 4, 2016 Submitted by secretary Tina Snoke

President Judi Lemmon called the meeting to order at 6:30pm. September minutes were corrected to include Lea White as our new member. A motion to approve the corrected minutes was made by Lynn Stiles and seconded by Miriam Good. All approved. Motion passed. Lois Dunn made a motion to approve the September Treasurer's report pending audit, Dee Hart seconded. All approved. Motion passed.

Judi Lemmon sent 30 Pillow Cases to New Orleans last month.

A discussion was held on Charity Quilts. We need someone to take over. It was suggested that pillow cases be used instead of quilts and Akron Children's Hospital always wants them; there are less restrictions in rules for pillow cases than quilts. We still have a lot of fleece on hand for quilts. Other suggestions were blankets for police cruisers; hats for cancer patients. Winnie Alek made a motion to table the discussion and Marcia Stoffer seconded. All in favor. Motion Passed.

Judi Lemmon requested that a Donation Form (see Judi for copies) be completed for materials purchased by the guild to have a paper trail of where the material is used and which charity organization is gifted. Even though we are non-profit we are still accountable for our expenses.

The guild will be paying a portion of the charge for our Christmas Dinner. Lynn Stiles will let us know the amount we will need to submit for dinner.

A La Cart Catering in Canfield has been reserved for 2017.

Lynn Stiles made a motion to close the meeting. Marcia Stoffer seconded. Show and Tell.

Our vendors for Vendor Night included The Gallery, Serendipity, Sew Deja Vu, The Shop on Canal Street and Village Quilts.
