UNITED QUILT GUILD MINUTES, NOVEMBER 1, 2016 SUBMITTED BY SECRETARY: TINA SNOKE

President Judi Lemmon called the meeting to order at 6:30pm.

Glassware here at the church was from a church member who had passed away; and was being sold for donations for the children at the church.

October minutes were corrected to show that only hats, gloves, scarves and school supplies are being collected at our Christmas Party for Buckeye School children. A motion was made to approve the corrected minutes by Geri Altomare and seconded by Rita Kilpatrick. Motion passed.

A motion was made by Marcia Stoffer to approve the October treasurer's report, pending audit and seconded by Miriam Good. Motion passed.

Our Christmas party will be held Monday, December 5th at Boneshakers (Timberlanes) at 6:00 pm, dinner at 6:30 pm. We will each be ordering from the menu. The Guild will pay $10 and each member is responsible for the balance. Members were asked to sign up so that Barb Fink could bring each member's $10 to the dinner.

Lillian Morenz made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Marcia Stoffer seconded. Meeting adjourned.

Mary Durkin presented us with a trunk show and showed numerous beautiful quilts she has made through the years.

NEW BUSINESS

Quilt Show Updates: 100 Quilt Show Pins have been ordered and will sell for $5.00 each.

A disclaimer will be added at the bottom of registration forms to release our Guild from responsibility of quilts. Quilt owners should check with their own homeowners insurance if they want coverage. Kids will leave with a bag of crayons and supplies to create their own quilt blocks to encourage future quilters.

Tickets will be sold for $1.00 each for a chance to win the 'hand quilted' quilt that is currently on a frame and available for anyone wanting to hand quilt now and at the show. This quilt will be in a separate area.

Quilt Show flyers are now available to be distributed and Farm and Dairy will be publishing an article about the show.

Sign up sheet for November 26 ticket sales at Giant Eagle was passed around.

The raffle quilt will be at the Ohio Star Quilts November 3rd through 5th; volunteers are needed to sell tickets.

Debbie Mangas is working on the Spring Tea Workshop. She presented us with several options for consideration: Sandy Lord with animal characters; small painted barn quilt boards that could be hung inside. We need to decide on a date and an option of sewing or painting. Julie Winn made a motion to do paint and lunch in one day instead of two; Lynn Stiles seconded. Ilona Mihai is in charge of the Spring Tea meal but was not here due to an injury. More info to follow.
