UQG Website

Sarah Spalding has been trying to keep our website up to date, but it has become increasingly difficult. She has suggested we get a new host. The new host would cost about the same or less than the one we have now. We need to renew our current 1 year subscription by July 1. When Sarah has everything ready to start up the new website with the new host we will have to pay a 1 year contract with them as well. However, the time left on the old website will be added to the new one. We need to pay her for the work she has already done so far. There will be more discussion later.
