2023 Spring Tea

The quilt block selected was Around and Around We Go.

Round Robin

The first round will be due at the January meeting.

Quilt Show Yes or NO

1st we need a chairperson, Rita Kilpatrick volunteered. We also need people to commit to being committee chairpersons before any other decision is made. Sitting around a table talking is easy. What is hard and physically taxing are several days prior to the show. Often a few people are doing several jobs over a 3 or 4 day period. The days of setup we need strong, able bodies to move racks from the church garage, to a trailer, from the trailer to the facility, set them up and then hang the quilts. Then, there is tear down. Many, many of us are physically unable to do this anymore. Who knows what will happen to the few healthy people in the next 2 years. Something to think about and we will revisit this discussion in January 2023.

NEW BUSINESS

Challenge 2023

Rita Fitzpatrick is chairing the June 2023 challenge. It will be based on a trip you have taken, any kind of trip, good, bad or ugly.

The site is being restructured in order for it to be easier to use and follow, nice and simple. There will be a private side for members only and a public side. United Quilt Guild also has a facebook page. If someone wants to join please submit a friend request to Brenda Schmidt and then she will accept and invite you to our group. This is a members' only group. Please do not invite anyone that is not a UQG member.

It was also decided that we did not want to continue the UFO contest.
